

Brownfield Symposium: Thunder Bay

November 10, 2009
Thunder Bay, Ontario
Travelodge Airline Hotel, Tiberio "A" Room
8:30am to 3:00pm

The Thunder Bay Community Economic Development Commission (CEDC) is hosting a free seminar on Brownfield reclamation. The symposium is a full day session that will deliver Brownfield perspectives from Private, Municipal and Federal Government areas. Representatives from the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing (MMAH), Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC) and other regionally significant presenters will participate in the event. The primary focus of the session will be aimed at Brownfield identification, risk assessment, financing, training tools available and eligible funding for Brownfield redevelopment/reclamation.

A networking break and lunch will be provided.

Please note that this event has a maximum attendance of 50 people.

Those interested can RSVP to Ian Sgambelluri, CEDC Development Officer @ isgambelluri@thunderbay.ca or (807) 625 3965

