GORDON PITTS
AUTHOR AND BUSINESS JOURNALIST – GLOBE AND MAIL

Canada Post Recession Our New Economic Reality

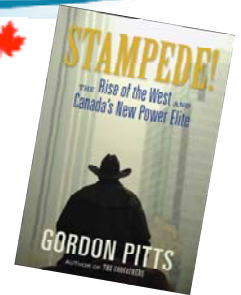

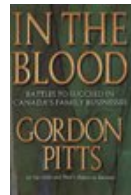

Gordon Pitts has been a business journalist for 35 years. His interviews with CFOs and CEOs are featured every Monday in the Globe and Mail. He has interviewed hundreds of business leaders across North America in the natural resources, media, financial and technology sectors including Jack Welch (GE), Peter Munk (Barrick Gold) and John Weaver (AbitibiBowater).

In the past year, Gordon has interviewed 52 North American business leaders in order to attain their insights into the future of investment and trade as Canada emerges from the global recession.

Gordon is the 2009 recipient of Canada's National Business Book Award for his fifth book, "Stampede: The Rise of the West and Canada's New Power Elite". All five have been finalists for Canada's National Business Book Award.
