

1975 - 1981

30 cm. of textual records

---

Series consists of records relating to seminars undertaken by Jeux Canada Games 1981 staff including critical path planning, time and stress management. Also included in this series are a range of publications created by the host society and various other government agencies and boards. The publications examine issues such as cultural trends over health and fitness and the position of sports in Canada.

A

A File Inventory is available for this series. See Publications Catalogue for an itemized list of publications found in this series.

Restrictions on reproductions may apply to the publications within this series subject to the Copyright Act.