MEMORANDUM

---

TO: Krista Power, City Clerk

FROM: Summer Stevenson, A/ Sustainability Coordinator

DATE: January 11, 2021

RE: *Community Energy and Emissions Plan Update
Request to Withdraw Item – January 11, 2021, COW Meeting*

---

We respectfully request that the Community Energy and Emissions Plan Update Presentation be withdrawn from the January 11, 2021 Committee of the Whole Agenda and presented at a later date.

On January 8, 2021 Administration received notification from the Federation of Canadian Municipalities that the funding deadline for the Community Energy and Emissions Plan project had been extended to accommodate for delays due to the COVID-19 pandemic. This extension will allow for further stakeholder consultation and review.

Updates relative to the project will continue to be posted on the Get Involved Thunder Bay website: <https://getinvolvedthunderbay.ca/community-energy-plan>.

Sincerely,

Summer Stevenson
A/ Sustainability Coordinator

TO: Mayor & Council
FROM: Dana Earle, Deputy City Clerk
DATE: January 11, 2021
SUBJECT: State of the City
Committee of the Whole – January 11, 2021

---

At the December 21, 2020 Committee of the Whole meeting, a memo was presented to withdraw the Mayor's State of the City presentation from the agenda.

The State of the City will be re-scheduled for January 11, 2021 as a video presentation.

As indicated in the Memorandum dated December 2, 2020 from Ms. K. Lewis, Director – Corporate Strategic Services, Mayor Mauro will outline some of the accomplishments, challenges and opportunities that occurred over the last year, and will speak to the COVID-19 pandemic and economic recovery.
