TREATIES MAP

A treaty is an agreement, or promise, made between the Canadian and Ontarian governments and First Nations.

A treaty spells out rules for everyone to live together on this land.

There are more than 40 treaties and other agreements that cover Ontario — the province we live in.

Map used for illustrative purposes only.