

2019 Jane's Walk-Details

Walk #	Walk	Date/Time	Organizer	Meeting Location	Walk Details
1	Exploring "big money" in early Fort William; banking, coal, grain and more	Friday May 3, 6pm	Laurie Abthorpe (Thunder Bay Heritage Advisory Committee)	Corner of Victoria and May (in front of Scotiabank)	Join members of the Thunder Bay Heritage Advisory Committee for a guided walk exploring early Fort William's commercial areas including the financial and warehouse districts.
2	South Core Neighbourhood Walk-about	Sat May 4, 10am	Chantal Petit & Joshua-Donald Hewitt (Crime Prevention Council)	City Hall, 500 Donald St. E.	Explore a neighbourhood with members of the Crime Prevention Council. Learn about enhancements being done to improve safety and security for all users of the South Core neighbourhood, and some of the history of the area.
3	Celebrate Simpson/Ogden neighbourhood with Evergreen Walking Club	Sat May 4, 11am	Linda Bruins (Evergreen a United Neighbourhood)	Evergreen House, 139 Heron St.	Join long term residents and neighbourhood newcomers for a stroll through the Simpson-Ogden neighbourhood for our eighth Jane's Walk. Hear firsthand stories about what it was like to grow up in one of the most ethnically diverse neighbourhood. Enjoy the second oldest neighbourhood in Thunder Bay.
4	Current River Waterfront	Sat May 4, 1 pm	Sara Williamson	Fisherman's Park (at mouth of Current River)	Walk along with various Leaders sharing information about Fisherman's Park, Richardson Grain Elevators, The Shipyards, the North Harbour Remedial Action Plan and the Paper Mill, then return to Fisherman's Park.
5	On the Waterfront	Sat May 4, 1pm	Betty Carpick (Thunder Bay Art Gallery)	Start at the Splash Pad. End at the Site of the New Gallery.	Explore our community's public art and iconic landscape as an opportunity for reflecting, sharing, and imagining. At the site of the new Thunder Bay Art Gallery, take part in a collaborative land-based art activity designed for people of all ages and abilities. Rain or Shine. Dress for the Weather!
6	Waterfront District Walk Revival	Sun May 5, 10:30am	Jennifer Dagsvik	New playground at Hillcrest Park (beside sunken gardens)	Discover an accessible route linking Hillcrest Park, Prince Arthur's Landing, and the small businesses in Port Arthur's downtown. Stop for views and public art along the way, and stay for Craft Revival, a festival of local artisans taking place at venues throughout the BIA.
7	On the Waterfront	Sun May 5, 1pm	Betty Carpick (Thunder Bay Art Gallery)	Prince Arthur's Landing-Splash Pad. End at the Site of the New Gallery.	Explore our community's public art and iconic landscape as an opportunity for reflecting, sharing, and imagining. At the site of the new Thunder Bay Art Gallery, take part in a collaborative land-based art activity designed for people of all ages and abilities. Rain or Shine. Dress for the Weather!
8	McVicar Creek Walk	Sun May 5, 1:30pm	Keith Nymark, Cathy Farrell	Waverley Park Pavilion	Join us on a neighbourhood walk from Waverley Park to McVicar's Creek. Share your stories and meet your neighbours. Bring a friend or the whole family. Everyone is welcome.