

Photo ((left), Peter Hensel, President of Ontario Senior Games presenting the Bob Secord Award to (right) Ken Simard)

Local Volunteer recognized for hard work on the Northwest Senior Games

Dedicated volunteer Ken Simard from the Thunder Bay 55 Plus Centre received the prestigious Bob Secord Award for his long standing service to the Northwest Senior Games on Monday, October 15th in Huntsville, Ontario.

The award was presented by Peter Hensel, President of the Ontario Senior Games. Ken was nominated for this award by the Northwest Senior Games Committee for his leadership and commitment to the Games. Ken has played an active role on the planning committee for the Northwest Senior Games for over ten years and he has been the chair of the committee for over five years. Ken is an enthusiastic leader whose love of the Games is contagious; he is a wonderful ambassador for the Thunder Bay 55 Plus Centre and for Northwestern Ontario.

The Bob Secord Award is awarded to one man and one woman who are senior volunteers in Ontario. This award is given to commemorate the life and achievements of Bob Secord as a promoter of the active life-style for seniors.